

This community affirms and promotes the Unitarian Universalist principles:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large
- The goal of a world community with peace, liberty and justice for all
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part

Announcements (Cont'd.)

Winter Solstice Service this Saturday, December 21, 7:30 pm

You are invited to join us by the fire as we celebrate the return of the light to the northern hemisphere, bathed in firelight. At the close of the service, we return inside to share the warmth of refreshments and fellowship. Please bring cider, hot cocoa, or treats to share!

Thank you to everyone who has made a pledge to support the 2020 Generosity Campaign! We are very grateful. Questions about your pledge or giving in general can be directed to the church office, administrator@uusmc.org, or you may contact the Generosity Team, stewardship@uusmc.org.

As always- Thank you for your support of Mill Creek!

Share Our Warmth The Mill Creek Social Justice Committee continues their annual collection of cold weather clothing items. This year they are focusing on ADULT SIZES, for both men and women: socks, gloves, hats & scarves, and blankets. All items will be distributed on location in downtown Wilmington. Please bring in your items and place in the collection bin in the cloakroom. See any member of the Social Justice committee with questions.

Prelude Just a Single Voice

Welcome

Lighting the Chalice

Response:

We gather this hour as people of faith, with joys and sorrows, gifts and needs. We light this beacon of hope, sign of our quest for truth and meaning, in celebration of the life we share together.

Unison Benediction

May we go from here with Love in our hearts,
Hope in our minds, Help in our hands,
To live our Principles and give of our gifts,
For those whose lives we touch, whose lives touch ours.

Welcome, visitors and guests. We invite you to fill out a contact information card, and hope you'll stay with us after the service for coffee, tea, & conversation. We welcome you to all meetings and social activities. To discuss membership, please contact Tracy Morgan, tracymorgan2000@verizon.net, or our minister, Rev. Gregory S. Pelley, minister@uusmc.org. We hope you have found the service meaningful and our fellowship warm, and that you will be with us again.

Meet our guest speaker, Dustyn Thompson. Dustyn Thompson is a local organizer and lobbyist for multiple grassroots organizations such as the Sierra Club of Delaware, and Delaware United. He has been working on progressive advocacy in Delaware for the past four years and is one class away from graduating with a Bachelors in Government and Public Policy. He is passionate about environmental protection and tackling the issue of climate change. "It is an honor to bring this message and mission to the Mill Creek Society. We must all take personal action to create the change we seek."

Today's music is performed by the Mill Creek Choir under the direction of Kristen Tosh-Morelli, with Savannah Klumpp, pianist.

Religious Exploration Children and Youth are invited to their classroom after the Story for fun, fellowship and discovery.

Share Our Plate For the months of November and December we will be sharing half of our undesignated plate offering to Wings for Success based in Chester County, PA. This organization empowers women in need to pursue employment and economic security through apparel, advice and advocacy.

-- ANNOUNCEMENTS --

Blue Christmas Service tomorrow evening
Monday, December 16, 6:30 pm

Amongst the celebrations of this time of year, in among the lights and carols, the family and friends, there are those of us who struggle with the sense of needing to be joyous — when our hearts tell us otherwise. The “Blue Christmas” worship service is for those of us who struggle with the Holiday Season because of loss or loneliness. Join us for a contemplative service of poetry, silence, and song where we might name our feelings, speak out loud of what we have lost, and find solace and comfort in one another. Rev. Greg will lead this service in the sanctuary.

Heifer International Holiday Gift Market There will not be a Heifer campaign this year. Anyone wishing to support this worthwhile organization may do so directly by visiting www.heifer.org
