

This community affirms and promotes the Unitarian Universalist principles:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large
- The goal of a world community with peace, liberty and justice for all
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part

Announcements (Cont'd.)

Family Promise Host Week

We have a commitment with Family Promise to provide and serve meals to the homeless at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Stanton on Tuesday May 2nd and Thursday May 4th. There are many ways you can help! Provide simple main meals for the dates above - main dishes, sides or desserts; help to serve these meals; provide simple breakfast or lunch foods (no serving involved). If you're interested in helping with the main meal foods and/or serving, contact Chitra Vaidy, cvaidy226@gmail.com. If you'd like to help with the breakfast or lunch foods, contact Lauri Rickard rickardlauri@gmail.com

Our next Family Fun Night is Saturday evening, April 29, 6:30 to 8:00 pm. Rumor has it that we will be outside if we have a nice evening. Everyone is welcome to come - you don't have to have kids to attend.

Book Group – everyone is welcome to join us on Thursday, May 18 at 7:30 pm in the MacArtor Library when we discuss The Handmaid's Tale by Margaret Atwood. For more info, contact group leader Amy White at amywwhite@comcast.net or (302) 652-1952.
